

Newsletter (#1 - 2018)

Dear members of the Rhetoric Society of Europe,

We present you with the first full newsletter of 2018, with two brand new featured publications from our members. The first is a monograph on rhetorical style by RSE-member Marie Lund. The second is an anthology on multimodal argumentation and rhetoric in media genres, featuring contributions from several RSE-members.

There are also new publications that should be of interest in the members announcement-section!

If you have any news that you'd like to share with the members, please just let us know!

Best wishes,

Magnus Hoem Iversen

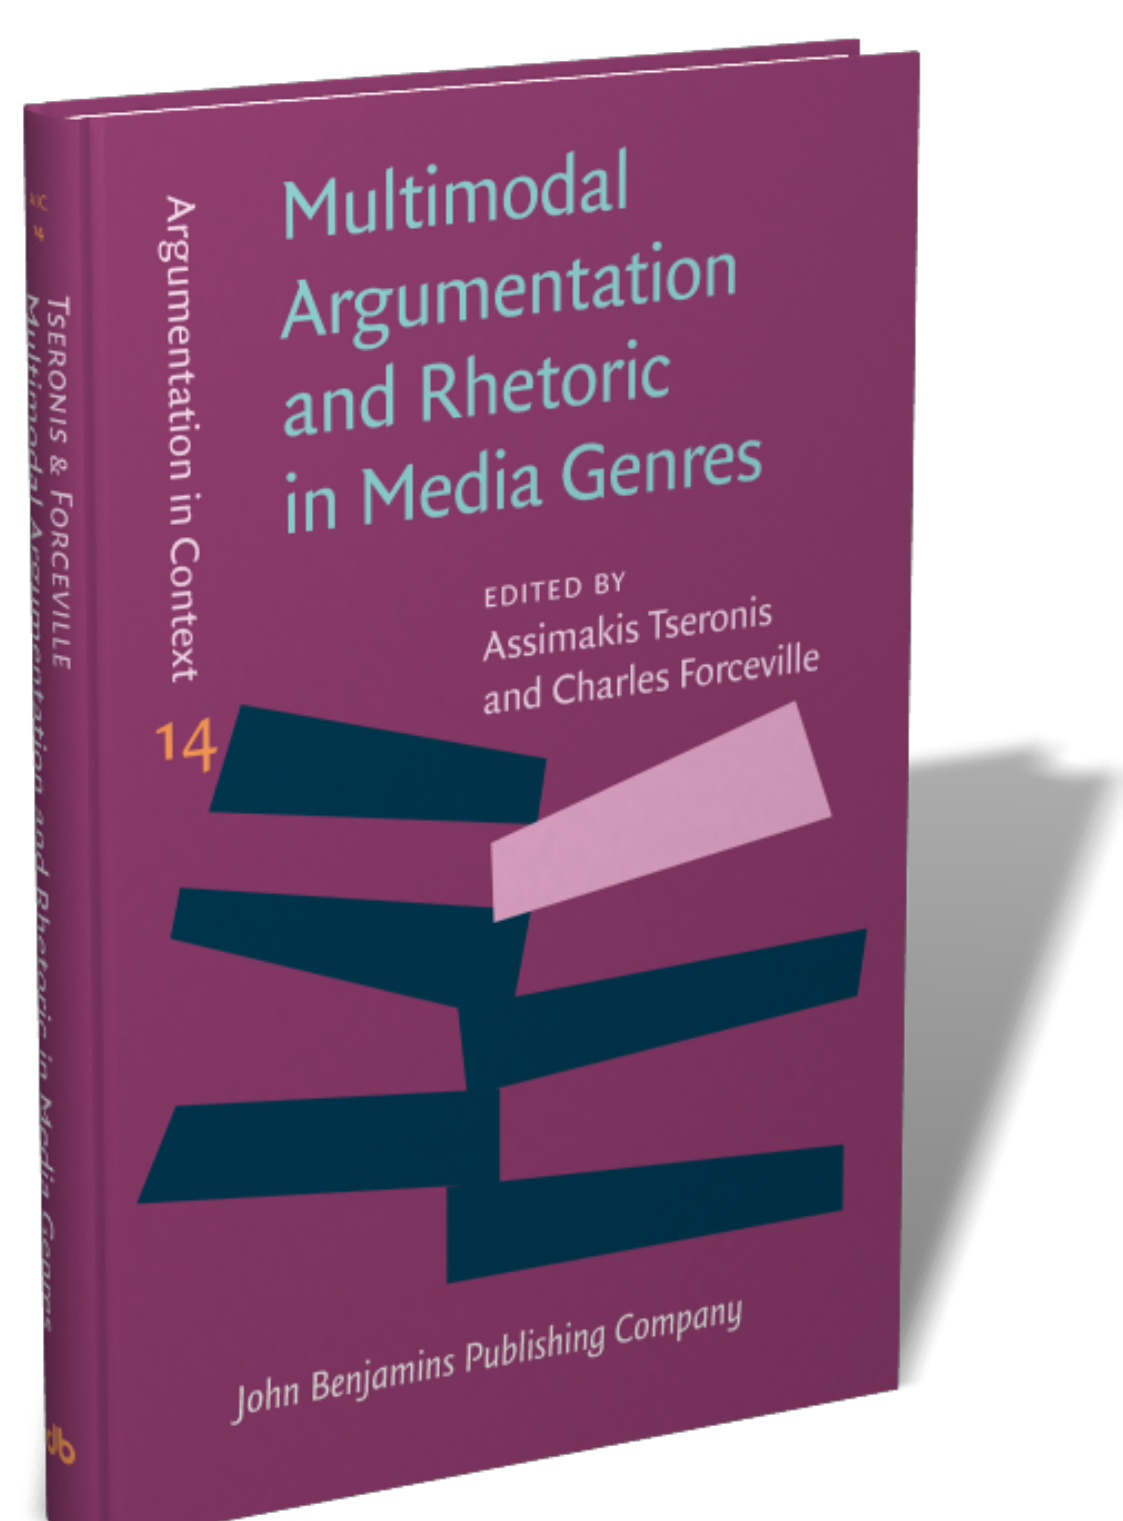

on behalf of the Newsletter Team of the Rhetoric Society of Europe

- The introductory chapter is free to read at this link!

Featured publication #2

New monography from Marie Lund of the University of Aarhus:

"An Argument on Rhetorical Style seeks to sharpen a tool that is too often blunted by multiple, overlapping, and vague definitions. Lund examines the historical, modern, and postmodern concepts of style, allowing the synthesis of three principle epistemological outlooks, the topoi of 'style as man', 'style as dress', and 'constitutive style', which in turn illuminate the analysis of different rhetorical styles. Lund argues for a re-theorization of style in the framework of constitutive rhetoric (...)"
